Beginning in September we will be offering a "Buck-a-Block" program. Come in any time in September to find out all the details and get started. The blocks will be available in two color choices; reproduction prints on a white on white background in primary colors, or batiks.

We are now offering custom as well as pantograph quilting on the Gammill long-arm. Prices start as low as 1½¢ per square inch with a minimum charge of $50.00. We currently do not have a backlog so get those tops sewn up and in here soon. There's still plenty of time to whip up some special holiday gifts, especially if you leave the quilting to us.

We have new fabric arriving all the time, including our third order of "Christmas Presence" by April Cornell. We also have some great panels for Christmas and for baby, as well as new batiks, black & whites, and large florals. Just in, Maywood Studio's "Delicate Dreams". It's a wonderful floral in beautiful fall shades of rust and green. Also, just received, the "5 Funky Monkeys" juvenile panel from Moda. Remember the story? Five little monkeys jumping on the bed??? We also have some great coordinates.

Don't forget! We have gift cards! The perfect present for all occasions.

Be sure to join us at Quilt-A-Fair on September 22 and 23. We have a new booth location, #901 & 902. Come in the entrance and make an immediate right at the first aisle. We're at the end of the aisle. Stop by our booth and get a free gift with purchase!

Saturday, September 30, 2006 is Quilt Pink Day! Golden Quilt Company & Rocky Mountain Quilt Museum's "Quilt Market" are sponsoring a sew-in. Quilt Pink fabric packets will be available for purchase @ 20% off at GQC. Sign up at either place and come sew blocks from 10:00 A.M.-4:00 P.M. Block patterns will be provided, and staff will be on hand to assist with piecing. GQC will assemble the quilt tops, and RMQM will quilt and bind them.

Saturday, October 14, 2006, Rocky Mountain Quilt Museum is hosting a Heather Thomas Color Class "reunion" for anyone who has completed "The Language of Color and Design" series. Call RMQM at 303-277-0377 for more information.
